Two Killed In Accident

The husband of a former Cameronite was one of two persons killed in a two - car collision Saturday night about three miles south of Rosebud on US 77.

Dead were: Sidney Samet, Waco, husband of the former Mrs. Eleanor Winfield, a native of Cameron; and Mrs. Harold Fitterman of Waco.

Three persons were injured. They were Mrs. Sidney Samet, Harold Fitterman, Waco; and G. B. Bellah, Louisville, Texas and Centerton, Ark.

All five accident victims were rushed by ambulances to Halbert Hospital in Rosebud where Samet was pronounced dead on arrival. Mrs. Fitterman died about three hours after the accident.

Mrs. Samet and Fitterman were moved to Hillcrest Hospital this week. Fitterman suffered a shattered arm.

The accident occurred about 7:30 p. m. Saturday on US 77 about three miles south of Rosebud.

Bellah, about 65, was traveling north on US 77 in a 1959 Ford station wagon. The four Wacoans were traveling south in a 1960 stationwagon. Bellah was alone.

The Waco group was driving to Cameron to visit Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Stalman.

Investigating the accident were State Highway Patrolmen J. D. Phillips and Jerry Hancock.

Mr. and Mrs. Samet had been married about six weeks ago. He was the owner of the Samet Plumbing Co., Waco.

He is survived by Mrs. Samet, two daughters, Miriam, 26 and Roberta, 21, both of Waco and four brothers in New York.

Mrs. Fitterman's survivors include her husband and three children, Barry, Sandy and Rena.

A former Yoe High grid great, George Zarosky, now starring for the Del Mar Junior College powerhouse, was interrupted in the Cisco game last week in an incident similar to the tackling of Dickie Moegle of Rice in the 1954 Cotton Bowl.

The story was the subject of sports columnist Buck Francis in the Corpus - Christi Caller Times.

Zarosky, incidentally, is gaining fame as an end on the same Del Mar club that YHS greats Guy Dillon and Bobby Elliott sparked to a Little Rose Bowl appearance last year.

101 - 101 - 101

"Zarosky was going downfield for a pass and as he passed the Cisco bench out came halfback Danny Cantu of Cisco from the sidelines to defend against the pass," Francis wrote.

"The pass fell incomplete although Cantu didn't touch the ball. Cantu did, however, obstruct Zarosky's view momentarily," the columnist said.

"Cantu continued on to the field to make it appear that he was already in the ball game, but it didn't work as his entrance made it 12 men on the field for the Wranglers," he said.

The game referee observed Cantu's play off the bench and penalized the Cisco team 15 yards.

Francis said that Zarosky was in the clear and would have scored easily if he had caught the pass.

Sports fans will recall the now famous tackling of Rice's Dickie Moegle, formerly of Taylor, Alabama's Tommy Lewis dashed off the bench in that classic and tackled Moegle who was on his way to a sure touchdown. Game officials awarded Moegle the touchdown since no Alabama defender was within tackling distance.

101 - 101 - 101

Incidents of this type are rare in football. Once in a while a player on the bench becomes so disturbed about a play on the field that he will jump into the fray.

Citians Affirm Need For CD

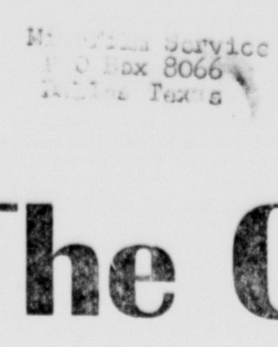
This is the first of a series of articles on Civil Defense preparedness, a project of the Cameron Three Arts Club, a women's civic club. — Ed.

If a constant siren blast of 3 to 5 minutes were to sound in Cameron signifying a warning of probable attack or radio active fall out, what would you do?

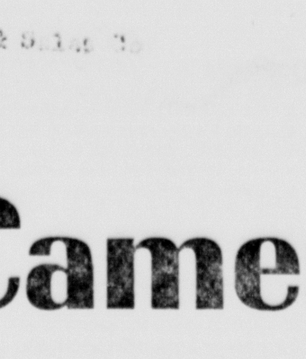
Are you prepared to take action in the short time you would have to protect the lives of your family?

Many responsible residents of our city are giving these questions serious thought.

Your reporter interviewed five Cameronites asking "Do you think it is important for Cameron residents to be prepared for civil defense?" All answered affirmatively:



James Wiggs, insurance and real estate agent, "Yes, we are definitely in a fall-out area and I am seriously considering a fall-out shelter."



Mrs. Gene Friemel, homemaker, "Yes, I think civil defense preparedness is necessary in Cameron. I took the Civil Defense course and believe it would be beneficial for all citizens to take."

Mrs. Pete Mikula, registered nurse, "Yes I think we all should be prepared. We are thinking about civil defense now in our family, of course it will take some time, but we do plan to make some shelter arrangements. I took the Civil Defense course and think everyone should. It makes us more alert and aware of how serious the need for prepardness is.

Mayor Coleman Duncum, auto dealer, "I think the town and community need to be defense minded even though we hope that we never have to use it. Preparedness is the best defense that we have. I am personally considering a home shelter for my family."

A. W. McCuilin, businessman, "I believe that Cameron will probably not be bombed, but in case of bombing, or a natural disaster, on the coast we would definitely need to take care of evacuees. And I think Cameron could do a good job with this problem with the proper advance planning."

Kickoff Monday . . .

FundDriveOpens

A kickoff meeting of about 60 workers Monday will start the 1960 North Milam United Fund, according to Richard W. Moseley, drive chairman.

Moseley said that coffee will be served 9 a. m. Monday at The Texan to workers who will make contacts with businesses and employees during the first week of the drive.

Goal of the North Milam Fund this year is $11,500, to be divided among seven participating agencies: Salvation Army, Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Area Charities, Texas United Fund and the Cameron Public Library.

Second week of the drive will be devoted to contacts in the various communities of North Milam County, north of Little River. Moseley said organization of workers in each community will be completed this week.

The Fund drive will continue October 17 to October 30.

Moseley urged consideration for the United Fund approach to giving to the participating groups.

"It is much more convenient to contribute one time for these organizations than to contribute to them separately," he emphasized.

He added that each of these organizations serve vital missions in the individual and community life of North Milam County. He listed the blood program of the Red Cross, relief services available through Area Charities and the Salvation Army and the important work with area boys and girls through the Boy and Girl Scout organizations.

"The success of this year's Fund drive will determine whether the United Fund appraoch is continued in this area," Moseley added. "The NM Fund reached about 55 percent of its goal last."

The Fund total will be divided as follows: Girl Scouts, $1,350; Red Cross, $3,100; Boy Scouts, $3,500; Salvation Army, $1,125; Area Charities, $550; Public Library of Cameron, $750; Texas United Fund, $400; and administration and contingency, $725.

Introduced by Robert C. Nelson, Dr. Williams said that athletics teach youngsters control of emotions, teamwork and how to work under pressure.

Richard Williams was master of ceremonies. He introduced head coach Bill Bates who lauded the efforts of the 1960 grid Yoemen and coaches Wallace Johnson, Jack Larrimore and Harrison McLerran.

Coach Bates also introduced about 35 YHS football players.

Forrest Sapp, Quarterback president, extended appreciation to the committee of club members that prepared the barbecue, and announced his appreciation to the club membership for their support of the event.

Field Narrows For Police Job

Police Chief Elvin Hoskins said today that he had screened applicants for the remaining city patrolman's post to two men.

Hoskins, who took the reins as police chief Monday, has recommended Vernie Miller for the other patrolman's post and the City Council approved his recommendation last week.

He added that final reference checks on the patrol applicants are due in before he makes his selection. And he said he would recommend a man for the radio dispatcher post at the next Council meeting.

Wilkinson Describes Factory Operation

James "Buck Wilkinson, assistant plant supervisor for Walled Lake Door Co., described operations of the Cameron door factory in an address before the Cameron Lions Club Monday.

Wilkinson cited current daily production at about 1,800 doors a day. He described contributions made by the door manufacturing concern through its payroll of about 40 employees.

Richard W. Moseley, chairman of the North Milam United Fund campaign urged the full co-operation of the Cameron Lions Club in meeting the $11,500 fund quota for the year. He also gave a status report on the seven - agency North Milam Fund.

Wilkinson concluded his program with a question - answer session on the operation of the door factory

16,000 Total Possible When 1960 Crop Ends

A total of 13,600 bales has been reported by Cameron Compress thus far this season.

Compress Manager P. W. Davis said it is possible that the 1960 Milam Cotton crop will reach 16,000 bales, about 1,000 bales more than predicted earlier this year. Cotton ginned in Milam County last year exceeded 17,000 bales.

Heavy rains in August caused concern over cotton production in the area, but dry September weather boosted prospects for a 15,000 - bale crop, which now may be exceeded.

Average yield from about 48,000 acres of cotton will be about one-third of a bale though ginners around the county have reported lowland cotton making upto one and one-quarter bales per acre.

County production had fallen short of the average production upto September 1. But heavy cotton picking during the past four weeks have brought in about 7,600 bales.

200 Officials To Watch

Alcoa ToUnveil Slag Road

A promising method for making old streets into new will be put on view Tuesday at Alcoa's Rockdale Works.

More than 200 engineers and city and county officials have been invited to witness the application of Slurry Seal on a one - and - a half mile stretch of private road at the aluminum smelting plant.

The process involves a new method of sealing and renewing an existing paved surface with a cold mix material utilizing Rockdale Slag Aggregate. It is put down with a self - contained, easily maneuvered machine developed for the job. Slag aggregate is a by - product of buring lignite at the Rockdale Works power plant.

The demonstration is being sponsored by Alcoa; Texas Power & Light Company, marketing agent for the Rockdale lignite by-products; and Young Brothers Contractors of Waco.

Actual application of the material is due to begin at 10 a. m. A man who did much of the research on the product, Professor Bob Gallaway of the Texas Transportation Institute, will conduct a discussion of techniques and economics of the process at 11:30.

Development after an extensive period of testing, the technique is suited for any concrete or asphalt surface whichhas deteriorated and needs resurfacing particularly streets, highways, parking lots, driveways, or airport runways. A low cost maintenance tool, it will greatly extend the life of existing bases.

Alcoa and TP&L have sponsored research on the slag material, basic component of the Slurry Seal, for several years. Young Brothers has worked for more than two and a half years to develop the seal and the machine which applies it.

The product is composed of the slag aggregate, sand, a small amount of water and an asphalt emulsion but the slag is what truly makes it unique. Applied over worn paving, it fills in cracks and produces a smooth, long-lasting black surface.

The length of the road to be resurfaced in the Tuesday demonstration extends from Farm Road 1786 north of the smelting plant to the Works administration building. The group invited includes members of city governments, county commissioners and highway engineers from throughout the Central Texas area

Farmers Advised To Keep Cotton Dry, Loose, Clean

COLLEGE STATION — The final grade of lint in a bale of cotton is determined by the condition of the seed cotton when it reaches the gin. For this reason, cotton should be produced, harvested and handled so that it reaches the gin as dry, loose and clean as possible, says Fred Elliott, extension cotton work specialist.

Picking early in the morning or late in the afternoon when cotton is very moist should be avoided. Loss of color associated with delay in ginning of high - moisture seed cotton accounts for a large part of grade difference between cotton harvested during high - moisture periods and dry periods. To get the best possible prices for cotton, the farmer should harvest it dry and keep it dry, the specialist points out.

Small capacity transport vehicles have no place in the cotton field, Elliott continues. Four-wheel large - cpaacity, wood - slatted or wire - sided trailers are recommended.

Another quality reducer, which is closely associated with small transports, is tramping the seed cotton in the trailer. Even the most elaborate and expensive ginning systems cannot remove all the small "pin and pepper" trash that is ground into the cotton by tramping.

"Remeber," Elliott concludes, "You can help maintain quality in cotton by harvesting seed cotton when it is dry and by keeping it loose and clean."

County Agents Notes

Time To Plan Winter Pastures

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

Don't let this hot weather fool you. Winter is not far away and now i s the time to plan for winter pastures. Temporary pastures not only reduce the cost of wintering livestock, they help m ntain growth and production. Many dairymen have reported net returns of $25 and $50 per acre from winter temporary pastures.

Texas has had a good pasture year, but the summer grasses will lie dormant during the winter months. Temporary pastures will supply the needed green grazing and will also help with erosion control.

The specialists advise planting at the proper time for your area, even if the seed has to be dusted in. Seed that is already in the ground when the rains do come has a jump on seed that is not planted until after the rain.

crops, need to be fertilized. A soil test is the only sure way to determine just what fertilizer is needed, and money spent for a soil test is never wasted. If the seed have to be dusted in, the fertilizer should be put down also. Even if the winter pasture doesn't produce, the fertilizer is not wasted it is there for the next crop.

Fertilizer and inoculate for best Legumes -- Properly fertilized and inoculated legumes are literally on - the - farm nitrogen factories, but if non - inoculated legumes are planted in soil there containes no nitrogen - fixing bacteria, no nitrogen will be fixed. This situation should not occur because it is an easy matter to get the right kind of inoculat on the legume seed before it is planted.

Above every acre of land surface there is about 35,000 tons of free nitrogen. With the exception of members of the legume family, no plants are able to use this free nitrogen. Nature has given legumes the power to take this nitrogen from the air and put it into the soil. This process is carried on by plants through small growths on their roots. These growths, known as nodules, are formed by the nitrogen - fixing bacteria.

Even though legumes have been grown successfully on the land where they will be planted again this fall, the seed for this year's crop should be inoculated. Be sure to check the container label so the correct type of inoculant will be obtained.

The legume plants must be thrifty and made a good growth if the bacteria are to thrive. For this reason, lime, phosphorus, potash and the trace elements must be supplied if they are lacking.

Fertilizer requirements vary with the different soil - type areas of the state. General recommendations are that 150 to 250 lbs. of 10 - 20 - 10 per acre be used on sandy soils, and 100 to 50 lbs of 13 - 39 - 0 or 16 - 48 - 0 per acre be applied to the heavier soils. Productive soils or soils high in organic matter should receive 200 to 300 lbs of 0 - 20 - 0 per acre. To be sure of their fertilizer requirements, farmers should have their soil tested.

Fertilizer may be applied as part of the seeding operation by using a fertilizer attachment on the grand drill or row crop planter. This joint operation cuts costs and places the fertilizer where it is readily available to the plants.

The time for planting winter legumes has arrived and the job should be done as soon as possible. Winter legumes will give protection to the land during the winter, will provide grazing, can be used for a cash crop or they can be turned under as green manure. Any way you go, legumes will contribute to any soil improvement program.

Newspaper Week For You...

A nostalgic air (hardly noticeable amid the hustle-bustle around here) prevails at The Herald during National Newspaper Week. That observance comes once again October 15-22.

It causes us to sit back and look at the past year of newspapering and wonder if we have furthered the cause of the fourth estate, and, more important, the people it serves.

Without seeking bouquets that might turn into brickbats, The Herald hopes the pensive silence of letter writers denotes approval of at least some of its efforts.

While Cameron has served notice to Central Texas that she can start a million-dollar building boom, The Herald in the past 12 months has:

★ Become one of the few weeklies in the nation with ROP color in every issue...

★ Printed some 100 thousand names since this issue last year or, looking at it another way, just about everybody's name in Milam County five times.

The latter achievement is one of the unique roles of the weekly press. While everything in the communications world has gone for the "big picture", we find the greatest news is the individual, the average man or woman who is usually referred to as "a consumer", a statistic or a part of somebody's erroneous poll.

It is rather presumptious for The Herald or any community newspaper to package our readers in the guise of some nebulous title. We still remember you by your name. You don't have to jump off a bridge, conquer Cuba or set off World War III to make news.

Some of our readers bless 'em don't agree with this idea. But just let 'em have a baby, take a trip or enjoy success in their work or avocation and they'll be more inclined to see its merit.

All the dailies scramble to emulate this philosophy, but it is difficult.

The weekly newspaper still faces the competition of cost. Though we follow a casual philosophy perhaps, the pace of making ends meet increases each week.

We could roll off a number of things The Herald has done or attempted since National Newspaper Week last year, but we would rather invite you to visit the shop sometime during October 17 - 22.

If you know how The Herald works, you will understand why we acknowledge another of a multitude of "weeks" (Cranberry, Flower, Shoeshine, etal.). It is you, the reader, that makes it possible and worthwhile.

North Milam County's annual United Fund appeal goes out to every resident north of the Little River.

The goal this year is $11,500. It sounds like a lot of money until we consider it is divided among seven organizations: the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, Red Cross, Area Charities, Cameron Public Library and Texas United Fund.

Each of these organizations provides a service useful to every home in the area. We sometimes hardly realize their effectiveness unless we no longer have their facilities available.

It should be unnecessary to publicize the value of each of these agencies or the United Fund approach to giving. And yet the story of the United Fund can be retold to new audiences each year.

The United Fund is the most logical method of handling multiple drives that has yet been conceived. Its advantages to the donor as well as to the agencies are numerous. Primary of all, however, is the convenience of giving your donation or pledge to one group for the many.

We all remember when each group used to mount its own drive. Everyone was busy collecting or giving to one organization after another. And each organization suffered at the expense of the previous drive in the amounts of donations, until finally campaign-weary donors and workers would run out of patience and enthusiasm.

This situation is avoidable through the United Fund.

One two-week drive will serve the needs of seven organizations.

Officials are concerned about the success of this year's campaign. If it does not reach the goal, some of the partcipating organizations may again try separate drives.

We urge North Milam County's consideration of the 1960 appeal for United Fund contributions. Success of this drive is in your hands.

People In Cities Want Some 'Say'

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — City officials of Texas are serving notice on the next Legislature that "something's got to give."

"Three - fourths of the people live in cities, and they should have three - fourths of the vote," said Deer Park Mayor Jimmy Walker after being elected president of the Texas Municipal League Mayors, Association.

Walker referred to votes in the Legislature, due for re - districting since the 1960 census. In the past 10 years Texas has had a sharp population shift from rural to urban which is not reflected in the make - up of the present Legislature.

Given representation according to their populations, the city officials believe they can "cure many inequities."

One of the first things they would like to have is broader taxing powers. State law now restricts cities to the property tax.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH UPHELD

State Supreme Court has reaffirmed its own earlier ruling of "accidental death" in the case of a man who died from a blood clot on his brain after watching his office records burn.

This means two insurance companies must pay double for policies on the man's life, which provided for double indemnity in case of accidental death.

Decision was 5 to 4 by the court.

Majority opinion said that the "viewing of the fire produced a wholly unexpected, unusual and unforeseen catastrophe."

Dissenting opinion said that the case would bring up all sorts of confusion, such as whether a heart attack caused by excitement from watching a footall game or TV show was "accidental death."

ANOTHER CHANCE FOR SA

Supreme Court ruled that the City of San Antonio has the right to make another try in court for water from the Canyon Dam Reservoir.

San Antonio's effort to get some water from the dam being built by the Guadalupe - Blanco River Authority has been going on for years.

State Water Board turned down the city's request which is vigorously opposed by GBRA. San Antonio appealed the Water Board decision to district court which rejected the appeal, saying in effect, that it was too late since construction of the dam already had begun.

Supreme Court held that San Antonio was entitled to a trial of the case on its merits in district court. If the district court should decide that the city should get some of the Canyon Dam Water, the case will go back to the Water Board to decide how much it should get.

"SALOON CLUBS" UNDER FIRE

State Liquor Control Board has set a hearing Oct. 24 on proposed new regulations for private clubs selling liquor by the drink.

Bona - fide private, non - profit clubs are not the target of the proposed new rules, said Liquor Board Administrator Coke Stevenson Jr.

It's aimed, he said, at "fly - by-night operators" who give away the flimsiest sort of organizational membership cards or have only set - up as an excuse for selling liquor by the drink.

New rules would require all clubs to have a private club registration permit, to be renewed annually. To get the permit, the club would have to have dues or fees, exclusive of liquor charges, sufficient to pay rental, insurance taxes, repairs, etc. on its premises.

Liquor dealers would be forbidden to deliver liquor to any club without a permit.

Stevenson said there are probably more than 1,000 clubs providing liquor by the drink in Texas.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

US Has Made Great Strides In Public Opinion Polls

Dear editar:

A lot of people are accusing the United States of not making any progress, and in some fields it may be true, especially in some of my fields out here on this Johnson grass farm, but there's one area the country has made great strides in.

I refer to public opinion polls.

I don't mean they're any more accurate than they used to be, what I mean is that the poll-takers have gotten smarter.

For example take the way they word their questions when they send interviewers out to take the public pulse. They don't ask, "How're you going to vote on November 8," they ask, "If the election were held today, how would you vote?"

This is the smartest way I know to conduct a poll, mainly on account of the election ain't being held today, consequently there's no way on earth to find out whether the polls are accurate or not.

This is sort of like asking say a mid - western corn farmer: "If you were harvesting our corn today, how much would you make," when at the time the corn is just sprouting.

As I understand it, right now the polls show both candidates for President about even, provided the election were held today, with maybe one having 48.2 per cent and the other 48.1 per cent, with the balance of the people undecided.

If the poll - takers continue smart, they will keep on taking the public's pulse, always playing it safe by asking how the poeple would vote if the election was begin held today, right up to a few days before the election on Nobember 8.

Then they can slack off and I'll be glad to take over. Won't be any trouble at all for me to take a poll to find out: "If the election was held yesterday, how did you vote?" It'll be the most accurate public opinion poll ever taken in the United States, and I figure I can get the results merely by looking at a newspaper on November 9 Dr. and Mrs. Gallup both have our work cut out for us.

Your faithfully,
J. A.

Burke Advises Early Heating Inspection

"The comfort of the entire family will be assured during the coming cold weather without delay if you have your gas heating equipment inspected and adjusted now for winter use," C. M. Burke, Lone Star Gas Company manager indicated today.

He suggested that users of gas floor furnaces, wall heaters, unit heaters, central heating plants and other gas heating equipment arrange now to have them inspected and adjusted by calling their heating equipment company or Lone Star Gas Company.

The heating equipment companies and Lone Star always receive hundreds of calls for service the day that cold weather hits. This usually results in considerable delay in filling individual orders.

"But, there is no delay, when you do it today," Mr. Burke said.

Taylor Ducks Drop Yoemen 34-6

By Robert Mann

The Taylor Ducks, inspired by a hard working, speedy backfield that garnered 387 yards rushing dropped the Cameron Yoemen, 34-6 last Friday night in Taylor.

The contest was the Yoemen's last of the season before district play begins next week in Caldwell.

Budgie Ford, Jan Mohel, Charles Patterson and Billy Davis were the names heard over and over again as they battered out touchdown drives from far in their own territory and were constantly breaking away for that long run.

Ford, rated as one of the finest fullbacks in the state scored twice. His first TD came midway through the first period on a 31 yard run that originated on a pitchout from quarterback, Billy Davis. He reached paydirt again in the last quarter on a 74 yard carry following a Yoe fumble on the Duck 26.

The Yoemen's single tally came seconds after Ford's 74 yard dash. Ernest Bayer carried the kickoff to the Cameron 47 yardline where Carol Fikes hit Ed Lierman with a pass that netted 53 yards and 6 points.

Yoe defenders were off balance all night as the shifty Ducks backfield would bobble in and out of various holes in an assortment of fine plays, engineered by quarterback Davis.

The hard played game had a tendency to get rough as both squads were heavily penalized. The penalties hit the Yoemen at the wrong places while the Ducks took advantage of all Yoe miscues and bad breaks.

Davis chose to tote the pigskin himself 10 times for 35 yards. Mohel totaled 127 yards in 13 attempts. Ford averaged a spectacular 15.8 yards per carry on his 153 yards. Charles Patterson, 150 pound halfback and described as almost as good as Ford proved his worth by scoringonce and garnering for 51 yards.

Cameron took the opening kickoff on their own 35, where fullback, Bayer completed a pass good for 50 yards to Lierman giving the Yoemen the ball on the Duck 5. Roger Youngblood intercepted a Yoe pass on the one to start a 99 yard drive that ended up in Taylor's first 6 points.

From the Cameron 31, Davis pitched out to Ford and he went all the way. The extra point attempt failed.

Early in the second quarter, pass interference by the Yoemen gave Taylor the ball on their 32 where Ford got 12 before being brought down by Chris Gay. Billy Davis was caught in his own territory and ushered even farther back by Lierman on a 13 yard Duck loss.

Kelly Marek was forced to punt 28 yards downfield on a fourth down situation. Lierman got a first on a 16 yard trot on the first play from scrimmage. The Yoemen fire went out and Fikes booted to the Taylor 15.

A 22 yard gain by Mohel and an 18 yard trot by Ford game them the ball on Yoe's 35. A pass from Davis to end, Darrell Mott accounted for the touchdown. Ford ran over the two extra points.

Big Bret Shumate, 210 pound tackle took the Duck kickoff and showed an unexpected burst of speed in carrying the ball back to his own 45. The Yoemen lost the ball on downs and Taylor had possession when the first half ended with the Yoemen trailing, 14 - 0.

The Ducks, regared as a second half ball club were no exception this night. A 44 yard drive brought them another touchdown despite head - up defensive play by David Barkemeyer and Stanley Kirk.

Mohel went around right end from 46 yards out for the score. Lierman and Fikes hit Ford hard to stop the PAT attempt. The Ducks took a 20 - 0 lead.

The Yoemen were hard hit by penalties the remainder of the third quarter to prevent them from making much yardage despite a number of pass completions and nice runs.

Ford was stopped at the line of scrimmage a number of times when Bayer, Johnny Richter, and Gay would team together on the defence. Mohel dashed for 25 yards in the 3rd before Bobby Hillman brought him down.

The play of the night was made by Ford three minutes after the last frame started. He outran four would - be Yoemen tacklers and went all the way downfield, 74 yards for the Ducks, 26th point. Mohel ran over the ball for the two extra points.

Cameron's touchdown came next as Ed Lierman, with a surge of determination shook off tackler after tackler, refusing to fall to the ground and finally stumbling over the goal after a pass completion from Fikes that netted 53 total yards.

The pass attempt for two extra points failed.

Taylor returned the kickoff to their own 28. Patterson and Mohel teamed together to bring the ball to their 3 yardline. James Edwards and Eugene Schattle stopped Davis on a keeper play just a yard short from paydirt.

Patterson went through the right side of the line for a yard and the score. Davis carried over for the two points.

The Yoemen completed two more passes and Lierman made a 21 yard run before the clock ran out ending the game.

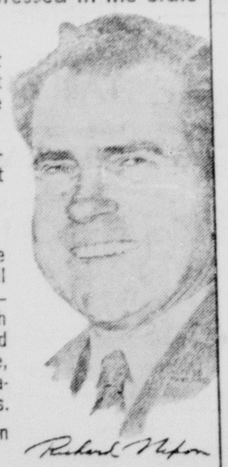
Which Democratic Platform?

Which do you prefer: the socialistic, anti-Texas platform of Kennedy — or the Nixon Platform that more nearly conforms with Texas principles and ideals as expressed in the State Democratic platform?



The Kennedy platform is against nearly everything Texans are for—it is for nearly everything Texans are against.

What will be your choice? It is between a party label and the best interest of Texas and the Nation.

Allan Shivers says:

"I'LL TAKE TEXAS. I accept the Texas Democratic platform and will work for it. I repudiate the other—the Kennedy platform. I will join with my fellow Democrats to work and vote for men of maturity, experience, responsibility, and a fearless dedication to this country's best interests.

"I will vote for Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge."

PLANNING A PROGRAM?

I thought you might be interested in knowing that we have a good selection of films available for showing to civic clubs, schools, church groups or other community organizations. Some of these films tell the story of the invention and development of the telephone, others teach the correct use of the telephone and aid us in getting more and better use from telephone service.

We have a number of good science films suitable for showing to any type of audience. Just released is the film "The Big Bounce" a fourteen minute Technicolor film report on Project Echo and other space communications studies. Another fine film titled "Seconds for Survival" accents the vital role that communications play in our National defense system.

To obtain one of these films, free of charge, just call the telephone business office OX7-4601. We will be glad to furnish you a copy of our film catalogue and help you make a selection.

HOW TO "HOLD THE PHONE"

You and your family may be among the many that believe the color wall phone is the handiest thing in your kitchen.

You probably realize how it brightens up the room and saves space — doesn't take up valuable room on a kitchen counter or table.

But did you know there is a handy way to keep the receiver from dangling if you are called away from the phone for a minute?

A number of people have told me they were surprised to learn they can hook the receiver over a notch on the top of their color wall phones until they return to the phone.

I thought you might be interested in hearing about this added convenience of wall phones in color.

Recapturing The Serenity Of A Time Long Ago

Sometimes on a quiet street of a sequestered village, one can sense the tranquility of yesteryear's simple life and sturdy virtues. Today's pace is faster, its problems more complex, but the church, so esteemed by our forbears can still cotnribute most importantly to our peace of mind. The church remains today as always, the keystone of happy contented living.
